Chapter 1 by Weirdfriendlessgirl

When your best friend ditches you for a girl he used to hate something is wrong. But, when every guy in school leaves their girlfriends to chase after this girl something is really wrong. I knew there was something about her when she came here this fall but, I didn't realize how deep it went. Now I know and some way or another it's up to me to save every guy and school from their demise... And pass the big semester exam. Well this should be fun

Chapter 2 by Phantim

Like I said, there was something off about Cherie ever since she showed up at school. It was hard to tell what it was, but in high school most girls fall into a category, but she had her own. She was pretty and perfect like a cheerleader, smart like one of the nerds, she dressed in all black like the emo kids, and she was really good in PE like the sporty girls. At first I was jealous, but the more I saw her, I just kept thinking something was weird about her... not not just weird, wrong.

After Tim left me for her, along with a lot of the other boys in school. I was determined to find out what it was about her. Today is the day I begin my investigation into Cherie Smith.
